Assignments:Research Assignment:

Each student will complete and submit a 6-7 page research paper. The paper will have one inch left/right, top/bottom margins and double spaced 12-point font. Utilize Spell and Grammar Check tools in your word processor to correct errors. Research a historic event or important person. Analyze and explain the event or person's historical significance and impact on the world's political system, economy, societal institution or cultural group. You may use the course text and other books from the NTCC Learning Common. Do not use the internet. You may use the NTCC library databases. Please save the following login credentials to access the Library's databases off-campus. If you are on campus, no login is required. Username: library Password: goeagles (All letters must be lowercase.)

The college requires all students adherence to strict academic integrity standards. Do not plagiarize. Plagiarism occurs when you quote any published source without a reference in a bibliography or works cited page. Place "quotation" marks before and after any word, phrase or sentence you quote in the paper from any source(s). Write the author's last name and page number in (parentheses) immediately after the quoted words. In the bibliography or works cited page, provide the author's last name, first name or initial, middle name or initial, (if available), full book title, publisher and copyright date, in that order in MLA format. The reference page should list two or more sources.

Upload the completed paper to a link in your student Blackboard account. The link forwards the paper to: turnitin.com, which checks for plagiarism. If turnitin.com discovers any quotations that lack a bibliographical reference, you risk an F for the assignment or course. Submit paper no later than Wednesday, October 17, 2018.

Student Responsibilities/Expectations:

1. Multiple absences without notification to the Admissions Office or instructor may result in an F for the course. Tuesday, November 20, 2018 is the last day to drop with a W.
2. Treat the course like employment. You earn money for work. The employer deducts pay if you are absent, tardy or leave early. In this course, regular attendance is vital. You earn 10 points for attendance and lose 5 for tardiness or leaving early. Do not schedule appointments with other instructors or advisors during class time. Complete all communications and correspondences with outside contacts before or after class. If you miss a session for legitimate reasons, ask a classmate for notes or other course adjustments and updates.
3. Each student may use up to three full credit excusable absences. Alert the instructor via email on, or prior to absences for full credit. Students, who miss four or more consecutive classes, without contacting the instructor, may fail or be withdrawn from the course.
4. The course calendar lists test dates. If absent, it is the student's responsibility to arrange a test makeup with the instructor. Makeup test questions are from the textbook, not lecture. You must attend the last session and complete a final test on Monday, December 12, 2018 at 11:00am, failure to do so will result in an F for the course.
5. Please review the NTCC Student Handbook's behavioral standards online. The college promotes and maintains a professional, dignified environment for faculty and students. Please treat all in a professional manner. Arrive punctually at 11:00am for each session. Listen attentively to lectures, participate in group discussions and eliminate distractions such as talking to fellow students, texting or viewing Internet sites, on cell phone, iPads and laptops, unrelated to World Civilization.
6. You committed to all course requirements at enrollment, therefore, adhere to the syllabus guidelines. Please attend the sessions read the textbook chapters, complete the research paper and take all tests listed in the calendar.
7. Communicate with the instructor for HIST 2321.001 through: jrusso@ntcc.edu for all correspondence. Check your personal Blackboard account for attendance, exam and assignment scores.
8. It is the student's responsibility to withdraw from the course for illness, job transfer or other unforeseen reasons. If you withdraw, notify Admissions and the instructor to avoid an F for the course. Please report changes in contact information, such as residential and email addresses or phone numbers to the Admissions Office.

Other Course Policies:

Turn off cell phones, alarms, and other devices that cause distractions. Texting in class is unacceptable. If you have an emergency call, step outside the classroom to answer it so as not to be a distraction.

NTCC Academic Honesty Statement:

"Students are expected to complete course work in an honest manner, using their intellects and resources designated as allowable by the course instructor. Students are responsible for addressing questions about allowable resources with the course instructor. NTCC upholds the highest standards of academic integrity. This course will follow the NTCC Academic Honesty policy stated in the Student Handbook."

Academic Ethics:

The college expects all students to engage in academic pursuits in a manner that is beyond reproach. Students are expected to maintain complete honesty and integrity in their academic pursuit. Academic dishonesty such as cheating, plagiarism, and collusion is unacceptable and may result in disciplinary action. Refer to the student handbook for more information on this subject.

ADA Statement:

It is the policy of NTCC to provide reasonable accommodations for qualified individuals who are students with disabilities. This College will adhere to all applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations, and guidelines with respect to providing reasonable accommodations as required to afford equal educational opportunity. It is the student's responsibility to request accommodations. An appointment can be made with Katherine Belew, Academic Advisor/Coordinator of Special Populations located in the Student Services. She can be reached at 903-434-8218. For more information and to obtain a copy of the Request for Accommodations, please refer to the NTCC website - Special Populations.

Family Educational Rights And Privacy Act (FERPA):

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. The law applies to all schools that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education. FERPA gives parents certain rights with respect to their children's educational records. These rights transfer to the student when he or she attends a school beyond the high school level. Students to whom the rights have transferred are considered "eligible students." In essence, a parent has no legal right to obtain information concerning the child's college records without the written consent of the student. In compliance with FERPA, information classified as "directory information" may be released to the general public without the written consent of the student unless the student makes a request in writing. Directory information is defined as: the student's name, permanent address and/or local address, telephone listing, dates of attendance, most recent previous education institution attended, other information including major, field of study, degrees, awards received, and participation in officially recognized activities/sports.
