Lectures & Discussions:

This course will largely be lecture-discussion, with a few guest presentation and some audiovisual presentations. This course, at times, will focus on controversial issues; an open mind and a mature attitude are essential for this course of study. Be prepared to answer questions and/or discuss the reading assignments and to defend your position on a given issue. Please feel free to ask questions and make comments.

Evaluation/Grading Policy:

Writing Assignments and Tests ----- 60% Final
Exam----- 40%

Tests/Exams:

The grades for this course will be determined by a combination of test grades and the final exam.

FINAL EXAM -- 9:30 AM -- THURSDAY -- MAY 16, 2019

Assignments:

The reading assignments should be done prior to the class discussion so that the student can gain the maximum benefit from the discussion. Most reading assignment topics will be discussed in class lecture; however, because of time considerations, occasionally the topics will be covered only by reading the assigned text. Periodically, there may be short pop tests on the readings; it is important to keep up with the readings because it is very easy to get behind, and it is difficult to “cram “for a test/exam.

Student Responsibilities/Expectations:

THURSDAY, APRIL 11, 2019 IS THE LAST DAY TO DROP WITH A W.

ALL CELL PHONES must be turned OFF and in your pocket or purse. AT NO TIME will it be on your desk or in your lap or anywhere except in your pocket or purse. Should you receive a call or text, your grade in this class may be affected.

Attendance

The attendance policy has been established by the college, and will be followed in this course. Keep in mind punctual attendance is essential for successful completion of this course.

NTCC Academic Honesty Statement:

"Students are expected to complete course work in an honest manner, using their intellects and resources designated as allowable by the course instructor. Students are responsible for addressing questions about allowable resources with the course instructor. NTCC upholds the highest standards of academic integrity. This course will follow the NTCC Academic Honesty policy stated in the Student Handbook."

Academic Ethics:

The college expects all students to engage in academic pursuits in a manner that is beyond reproach. Students are expected to maintain complete honesty and integrity in their academic pursuit. Academic dishonesty such as cheating, plagiarism, and collusion is unacceptable and may result in disciplinary action. Refer to the student handbook for more information on this subject.

ADA Statement:

It is the policy of NTCC to provide reasonable accommodations for qualified individuals who are students with disabilities. This College will adhere to all applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations, and guidelines with respect to providing reasonable accommodations as required to afford equal educational opportunity. It is the student's responsibility to request accommodations. An appointment can be made with Kat Belew, Academic Advisor/Coordinator of Special Populations located in the College Connection. She can be reached at 903-434-8264. For more information and to obtain a copy of the Request for Accommodations, please refer to the NTCC website - Special Populations.

Family Educational Rights And Privacy Act (Ferpa):

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. The law applies to all schools that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education. FERPA gives parents certain rights with respect to their children's educational records. These rights transfer to the student when he or she attends a school beyond the high school level. Students to whom the rights have transferred are considered "eligible students." In essence, a parent has no legal right to obtain information concerning the child's college records without the written consent of the student. In compliance with FERPA, information classified as "directory information" may be released to the general public without the written consent of the student unless the student makes a request in writing. Directory information is defined as: the student's name, permanent address and/or local address, telephone listing, dates of attendance, most recent previous education institution attended, other information including major, field of study, degrees, awards received, and participation in officially recognized activities/sports.
