Student Learning Outcomes:

Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

1. Describe visual subjects through the use of accurate and sensitive observation.
2. Generate paintings which demonstrate descriptive, expressive, and conceptual approaches.
3. Utilize varied materials and techniques with informed aesthetic and conceptual strategies.
4. Demonstrate an appropriate level of professional practice, including safety, craft and presentation.
5. Analyze and critique paintings verbally and/or in writing.
6. Relate painting to design, art history and contemporary artistic production.

Lectures & Discussions:

Lecture and discussions for the daily assignments will be in the morning on the day that class meets.

Evaluation/Grading Policy:

You will be evaluated on how well you fulfill your individual potential as an artist. Class participation, attendance, and how hard you work will be considered to determine your final grade. You will not be graded on the quantity of pieces you produce but on how hard you work and the quality of your work. All paintings completed and graded will be averaged to determine the final grade.

Grading:

20% - Participation/ Attendance – a daily grade for attendance and participation will be given.

Participation in classroom critiques is essential and will affect this grade. Tardiness will affect this grade.

20% - Notebook consisting of handouts, written notes and picture file.

40% - Final portfolio: Consisting of assigned projects and classroom exercises.

15% - Final project.

Make-up Work: If circumstances require you to miss class, you must make arrangements to make-up the work and complete all assigned projects. Work turned in late will receive a grade reduction. All assigned projects will receive a grade.

Tests/Exams:

SEPT 28 - Terminology Exam

NOV 2 - Written assignment over design, historical content or a contemporary artist.

Assignments:

The advanced students will discuss with the instructor their goals for paintings to be accomplished during the semester on the first day of class. An individual outline will be prepared by each student from that discussion. This form will be used as reference during the semester and serve as a basis for evaluation at the end of the semester. Critiques of artwork will be held regularly after the completion of each painting.

Other Course Requirements:

Supplies: Some basic papers and supplies may be furnished but students will be required to purchase their own materials including but not limited to brushes, canvas and paints. A supply list will be available upon request.

Family Educational Rights And Privacy Act (Ferpa):

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. The law applies to all schools that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education. FERPA gives parents certain rights with respect to their children's educational records. These rights transfer to the student when he or she attends a school beyond the high school level. Students to whom the rights have transferred are considered "eligible students." In essence, a parent has no legal right to obtain information concerning the child's college records without the written consent of the student. In compliance with FERPA, information classified as "directory information" may be released to the general public without the written consent of the student unless the student makes a request in writing. Directory information is defined as: the student's name, permanent address and/or local address, telephone listing, dates of attendance, most recent previous education institution attended, other information including major, field of study, degrees, awards received, and participation in officially recognized activities/sports.
