A 90+ B 80-89 C 70-79 D 60-69 F 59 or below

Grades are based on:

- Quality of personal resume
- Seminar attendance
- Volunteer service attendance
- Sponsor agency evaluation

To receive credit for this course, the student must satisfactorily complete the following areas:

1. Attend class regularly and on time.
2. Demonstrate knowledge of all learning objectives as determined and approved by the instructor.
3. Read all materials and do all work on time and in a quality manner as dictated by the group and/or by the instructor.
4. Take responsibility for the learning process.
5. Cooperate freely with other students on the project and other class assignments.
6. Complete all exams and coursework.

Tests/Exams:

There will not be traditional testing during this class.

The instructor reserves the right to make final decisions regarding sponsor assignments.

However, input from the student regarding their areas of interest and service schedule availability will weigh heavily when making service assignments.

If problems develop with service assignments during the semester, both students and sponsors are encouraged to contact the instructor immediately.

At the end of the semester, the sponsor will complete an evaluation for each student. The evaluation will reflect the student's level of responsibility, areas of growth, areas of needed improvement, attendance record, punctuality record, and any other recommendations regarding the student or the overall program.

Assignments: There may be outside assignments required in addition to the above especially if extra credit is requested by the student.

Student Responsibilities/Expectations:

Students will be expected to follow all class policies noted in the complete syllabus (available at ntcc.blackboard.com) and students will be expected to follow all guidelines found in the NTCC student handbook (available on NTCC website: ntcc.edu)

Academic Ethics

The college expects all students to engage in academic pursuits in a manner that is beyond reproach. Students are expected to maintain complete honesty and integrity in their academic pursuit. Academic dishonesty such as cheating, plagiarism, and collusion is unacceptable and may result in disciplinary action. Refer to the student handbook for more information on this subject.

ADA Statement:

It is the policy of NTCC to provide reasonable accommodations for qualified individuals who are students with disabilities. This College will adhere to all applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations, and guidelines with respect to providing reasonable accommodations as required to afford equal educational opportunity. It is the student's responsibility to arrange an appointment with a College counselor to obtain a Request for Accommodations form. For more information, please refer to the NTCC Catalog or Student Handbook.

Family Educational Rights And Privacy Act (FERPA):

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. The law applies to all schools that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education. FERPA gives parents certain rights with respect to their children's educational records. These rights transfer to the student when he or she attends a school beyond the high school level. Students to whom the rights have transferred are considered "eligible students." In essence, a parent has no legal right to obtain information concerning the child's college records without the written consent of the student. In compliance with FERPA, information classified as "directory information" may be released to the general public without the written consent of the student unless the student makes a request in writing. Directory information is defined as: the student's name, permanent address and/or local address, telephone listing, dates of attendance, most recent previous education institution attended, other information including major, field of study, degrees, awards received, and participation in officially recognized activities/sports.
