COURSE DESCRIPTION:

3 credit hours.

Lecture/Lab/Clinical: Three hours of class each week.

Intensive study of and practice in professional settings. Focus on the types of documents necessary to make decisions and take action on the job, such as proposals, reports, instructions, policies and procedures, e-mail messages, letters, and descriptions of products and services. Practice individual and collaborative processes involved in the creation of ethical and efficient documents.

COURSE GOAL:

The goal of this class is to help students grow as thinkers and writers. Higher order skills acquired in thinking and writing help students process information in a rapidly changing world and reflect on the deeper meanings of print and visual media. Students who utilize rhetorical tools and strategies achieve a level of sophistication in writing that invites audiences to join them in examining issues from multiple layers of meaning. In the process, students begin to take a more disciplined approach to writing and develop their voices through a variety of writing styles.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK:

Excellence in Business Communication 12th Edition. Editors: John V. Thill & Courtland L. Bovée.

PUBLISHER: Pearson, New Jersey: 2017

ISBN NUMBER: 978-0-13-431905-6

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

1. Recognize, analyze, and accommodate diverse audiences.
2. Produce documents appropriate to audience, purpose, and genre.
3. Analyze the ethical responsibilities involved in technical communication.
4. Locate, evaluate, and incorporate pertinent information.
5. Develop verbal, visual, and multimedia materials as necessary, in individual and/or collaborative projects, as appropriate.
6. Edit for appropriate style, including attention to word choice, sentence structure, Punctuation and spelling.
7. Design and test documents for easy reading and navigation.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

Working in a spirit of inquiry and dialogue, upon successful completion of this course, you will:

1. Apply a variety of invention strategies that generate topics and ideas suitable for writing in a technical or business setting.

2. Apply a variety of organizational strategies that use critical thinking skills to develop a logical progression of ideas and supporting evidence.
3. Apply a variety of revision strategies that clarify and enhance the writer’s approach to the topic.

LECTURES & DISCUSSIONS:

Lectures are supplemented by the reading assignments and in-class writing assignments. You are required to read assignments and participate in classroom discussions and writing.

READING ASSIGNMENTS:

Students are expected to complete all reading assignments before coming to class. Students may be asked to respond to readings in their writing portfolio or during class discussions. Failure to read and respond effectively to the reading assignments will affect your grade in the course.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES/EXPECTATIONS:

COURSE EXPECTATIONS:

To complete this course successfully, you should do the following:

- Participate in the course activities.
- Read all of the textbook assignments.
- Complete both in-class and outside assignments.
- Participate actively and meaningfully in all discussions.
- Prepare and submit all writing assignments on time.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

Please try to make it to class on time. Please don't engage in casual conversations during our lecture, discussion and group times or while we're working on other assignments. I reserve the right to act as necessary to maintain a productive class environment, including asking disruptive students to leave, and in extreme circumstances, dropping chronic disruptors from my course. I will not tolerate uncivil behavior toward other class members during class discussions. Uncivil behavior includes interrupting others while they have the floor, rude responses to the ideas expressed by others, and the use of racial, ethnic, sexual, gender, or religious slurs.

Cell phones and other electronic devices should not be used during class time. That includes not only phone calls but text messaging as well. Lap top computers should only be used during class writing or reading assignments.

ATTENDANCE/PARTICIPATION POLICY:

Attendance will be taken daily either orally or by a sign-in sheet. If you come to class late, it is YOUR responsibility to make sure that the instructor counts you in attendance for that day. Students who miss more than five class periods will be subject to failure in this course.

WITHDRAWAL POLICY/DATE:

IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO DROP A COURSE OR WITHDRAW FROM THE COLLEGE. FAILURE TO DO SO WILL RESULT IN RECEIVING A PERFORMANCE GRADE, USUALLY A GRADE OF "F."

NTCC ACADEMIC HONESTY STATEMENT:

"Students are expected to complete course work in an honest manner, using their intellects and resources designated as allowable by the course instructor. Students are responsible for addressing questions about allowable resources with the course instructor. NTCC upholds the highest standards of academic integrity. This course will follow the NTCC Academic Honesty policy stated in the Student Handbook."

ACADEMIC ETHICS:

The college expects all students to engage in academic pursuits in a manner that is beyond reproach. Students are expected to maintain complete honesty and integrity in their academic pursuit. Academic dishonesty such as cheating, plagiarism, and collusion is unacceptable and may result in disciplinary action. Refer to the student handbook for more information on this subject.

ADA STATEMENT:

It is the policy of NTCC to provide reasonable accommodations for qualified individuals who are students with disabilities. This College will adhere to all applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations, and guidelines with respect to providing reasonable accommodations as required to afford equal educational opportunity. It is the student's responsibility to request accommodations. An appointment can be made with Katherine Belew, Academic Advisor/Coordinator of Special Populations located in the Student Services. She can be reached at 903-434-8264. For more information and to obtain a copy of the Request for Accommodations, please refer to the NTCC website - Special Populations.

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT (FERPA):

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. The law applies to all schools that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education. FERPA gives parents certain rights with respect to their children's educational records. These rights transfer to the student when he or she attends a school beyond the high school level. Students to whom the rights have transferred are considered "eligible students." In essence, a parent has no legal right to obtain information concerning the child's college records without the written consent of the student. In compliance with FERPA, information classified as “directory information” may be released to the general public without the written consent of the student unless the student makes a request in writing. Directory information is defined as: the student’s name, permanent address and/or local address, telephone listing, dates of attendance, most recent previous education institution attended, other information including major, field of study, degrees, awards received, and participation in officially recognized activities/sports.
